INTRODUCING ...

the WorldatWork Conference Center.

A new meeting space in the heart of our nation's capital designed for productive meetings and serious learning. Opened in 2007, our meeting rooms are state-of-the-art with modern furnishings, the latest technology and complete privacy. Certified by the International Association of Conference Centers, the WorldatWork Washington, D.C. Conference Center has met the high standards set in seven key areas, including food and beverage, technology, business services and more. Set in our sophisticated and comfortable environment near Capitol Hill, your board meeting, training meeting or lunch meeting delegates will be engaged, not distracted. Be our guest and ensure your meeting's success.

WHAT ATTENDEES SAY

"D.C. location is greatly appreciated."

"Great facility. Clean and comfortable for a learning environment."

"Excellent. I love the new WorldatWork facilities. I will look to take more classes here."

"Thanks for the healthy food alternatives. The best I've ever seen."

"I like this facility. Much better than a hotel."

About WorldatWork®

WorldatWork (www.worldatwork.org) is a not-for-profit organization providing education, conferences and research focused on global human resources issues including compensation, benefits, work-life and integrated total rewards to attract, motivate and retain a talented workforce. Founded in 1955, WorldatWork has nearly 30,000 members in more than 100 countries. Its affiliate organization, WorldatWork Society of Certified Professionals®, is the certifying body for the prestigious Certified Compensation Professional® (CCP®), Certified Benefits Professional® (CBP), Global Remuneration Professional (GRP®), Work-Life Certified Professional™ (WLCP®), Certified Sales Compensation Professional™ (CSCPT™), and Certified Executive Compensation Professional™ (CECP™). WorldatWork has offices in Scottsdale, Arizona, and Washington, D.C.

The WorldatWork group of registered marks includes: Alliance for Work-Life Progress® or AWLP®, workspan®, WorldatWork® Journal, and Compensation Conundrum®.

Built in 2007, the WorldatWork Conference Center is located on the eighth floor of the Franklin Square North Building in the heart of Washington, D.C. Conveniently accessible from both the Red and Blue Metro Lines and Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport, our five meeting rooms are available for daytime meetings for both private and public sector and non-profit organizations.

We've used our 50-plus years of delivering outstanding compensation, benefits, work-life and total rewards training and educational meetings to human resources professionals to design our meeting spaces to be comfortable learning environments equipped with unmatched multi-media technology and the highest quality soundproofing for ultra-private meetings for your elite events.

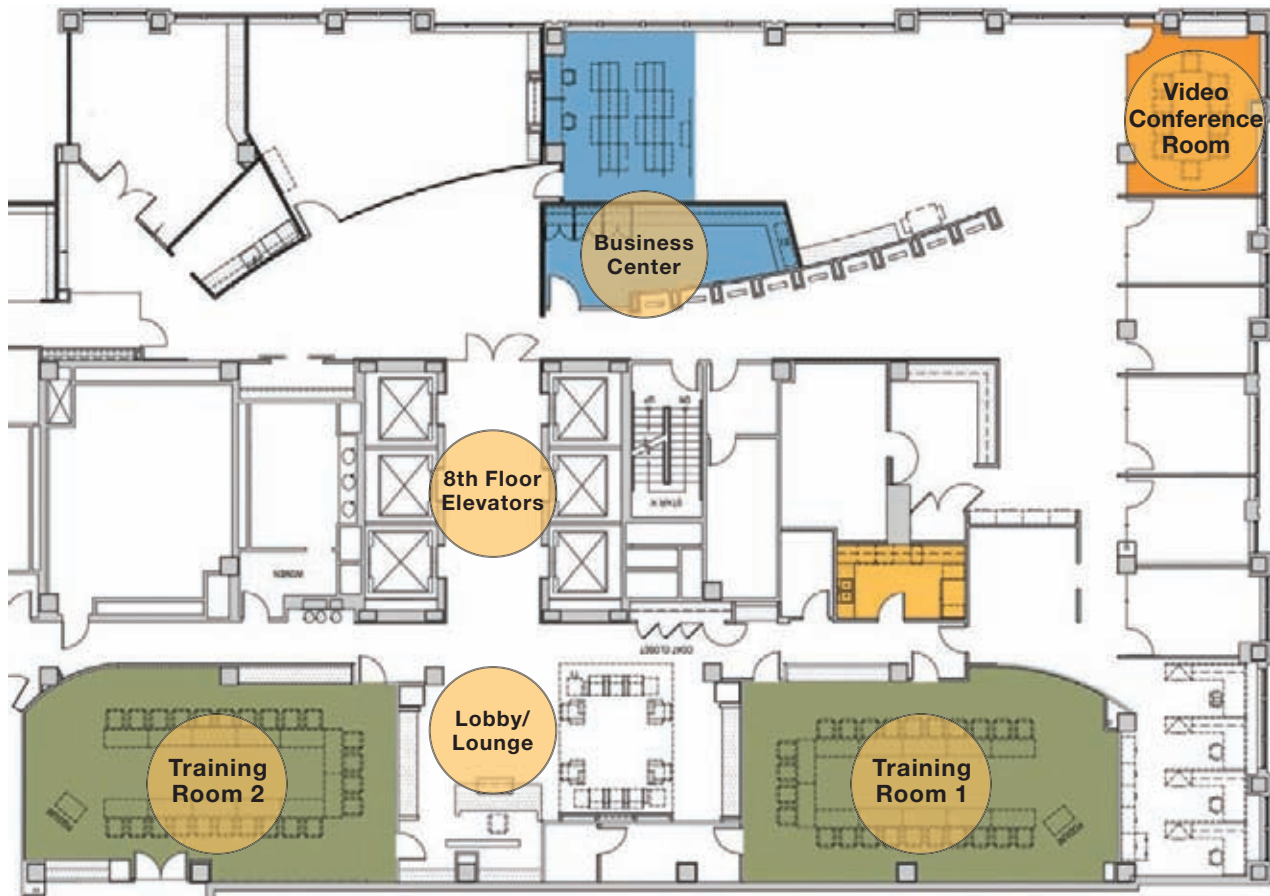

Surrounded by first-rate restaurants and hotels, businesses and government agencies, our Conference Center is in a class by itself when it comes to educational and training meetings or smaller private business discussions.

So whether you need a quiet, off-site space to discuss executive compensation issues or an easily accessible downtown, modern training facility, our rooms are ideal for your half-day, one-day or multi-day meeting.

TECHNOLOGY

All meeting rooms are equipped with world-class, multi-media technology. Our user-friendly equipment is expertly configured so you can “plug-and-present” by the click of a button adjusting sound, lighting and screens simultaneously and perfectly. Your presentation will exude professionalism and confidence to your delegates and will set your meeting apart. Plus, if not all delegates are able to participate in person, we provide video-conferencing technology for virtual attendance. Plasma displays and clear volume means that no matter where your attendees are located, they can experience your event as if they were in the room. Our audiovisual equipment is backed by dedicated on-site information technology support staff, so you are guaranteed immediate personal technical assistance if you need it.

Training Rooms

Each training room is configured with identical audio visual systems and is controlled by a user-friendly touch panel mounted in the lectern. The touch panel provides a graphical user interface to allow users to operate the system with little or no training. Other technological capabilities include:

- A ceiling mounted 100-inch motorized projection screen
- Digital projector connected to the following sources:
 - A dedicated PC running Microsoft Office 2007
 - Combination DVD/VHS player
 - Document camera
 - Auxiliary guest laptop computer input
 - Digital cable television signal
- Multiple plasma displays for full viewing coverage.
- Voice over IP speaker phone system for teleconferencing.
- LiveMeeting support for remote training/ meeting options.

Audio

The audio amplification system is connected to eight ceiling-recessed speakers spaced evenly throughout the rooms. The audio system will play back the following sources:

- Dedicated PC audio
- Combination DVD/VHS player
- A laptop computer audio
- Digital cable television signal
- Lectern-mounted microphone
- Wireless lapel microphone.

Video Conference Room

The video conference room is configured with identical audiovisual systems. Including full voice over IP video conferencing and a plasma display that is connected to the following sources:

- A dedicated PC running Microsoft Office 2007
- A guest laptop computer input
- Wireless keyboard and mouse
- USB remote mouse and cursor control for presentations
- Digital cable television signal

The audio amplification system is connected to ceiling recessed speakers spaced evenly throughout the room. There is a speakerphone for teleconferences and Polycom videoconferencing equipment. Secure encrypted wireless Internet access is also available.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

The WorldatWork Conference Center offers the added advantage of on-site catering with complete meeting packages or à la carte. Select from an extensive menu of healthy breakfast and lunch options that can be served buffet style, sit-down or boxed to go. Special dietary requirements can be accommodated upon request. With delicious food and refreshing beverages your attendees will be alert and attentive throughout the day. We're familiar with every nuance when it comes to food and beverage needs, that's why we have on-site, dedicated event staff to provide continuous personal attention to your group's food and beverage needs and to maintain impeccable cleanliness throughout the event. Another option for your delegates is to take a short stroll to eat out in a variety of first-rate restaurants located nearby. For WorldatWork, educational meeting excellence has been a tradition for more than 50 years and we can help you achieve the same high-standards for your next event.
